Health Fairs at Memphis Public Libraries Offer Customers Free Consultations with Health Experts

No registration required for health consultations

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (August 26, 2014) The Memphis Public Library & Information Center in partnership with Baptist Memorial Health Care is bringing free health care to Library customers! Through a series of health fairs at local Library branches, customers now have access to free consultations with health experts, blood pressure screenings, and more.

“Baptist is a great partner for the Library and a wonderful resource for our community. These fairs will enable people across the city to access free health information at convenient times,” said Diane Jalfon, executive director of the Memphis Library Foundation. “Through this initiative, Library customers can be proactive about their health concerns and get answers from top experts about their health questions.”

With tons of information at their fingertips, Library customers can visit the following Baptist health fairs.

Raleigh Health Fair
3157 Powers Road
Monday, September 8
10:30 am – 1:30 pm

Cordova Health Fair
8457 Trinity Road
Saturday, September 20
1:30 pm – 5 pm

Whitehaven Health Fair
4120 Millbranch Road
Saturday, September 27
11 am – 2 pm
